

Almost every Area reports that resolutions of a local nature have been presented, usually with considerable success.

There appears to be a reduction in the number of resolutions presented and sustained at the 1967 Conventions. I think this can be accepted as an indication that our members are doing more research before submitting resolutions, and are becoming increasingly selective where their requests are concerned. The resolutions are mainly of a worthwhile nature this year.

MOTTOES

Only a few outstanding new ones are included here:

- We should resolve to conquer temper, tongue and conduct.
- If you can't be thankful for what you have, be thankful for what you escape.
- Resolve to perform what you ought, perform without fail what you promise.
- One of today's weaknesses is to distinguish our needs from our greeds.
- Those who complain about their lot would do well to build something on it.
- Bring in ideas, entertain them royally, for one may be the King.

ROLL CALLS

- A Canadian law pertaining to women.
- A topic you would like to see as the basis for a resolution.
- Name one way in which progress is changing our lives.
- Laws for which I am thankful.

Respectfully submitted

Mary I. Trivers

Mrs. Leonard Trivers,
Convener of Resolutions, F.W.I.O.
