

$15.00 should <sup>always</sup> be forwarded on to the secretary of the coming convention. The question box in charge of Mrs. A. Rose gave everyone an opportunity to ask any questions that was in any way doubtful and Mrs. Colloton took care of each one and explained it to everyone's satisfaction.

On a motion by Mrs. Coghill seconded by Mrs. Routcliffe we adjourned for luncheon.

Thursday Afternoon

Mrs. M. Raymond was in the chair for the afternoon session and spoke a few words of greeting after singing two more numbers. Mrs. E. Holdsworth then favored us with two readings on the man's viewpoint of the Homeo Institute followed by the ladies viewpoint. Mrs. Colloton then requested a roll call of the different branches which was taken care of by the secretary. Mrs. H. G. Nixon, N.P. gave an extremely interesting talk on Insect Pests. He told of the modes of living of the different common insects and how to go about to destroy them. A solo was then rendered by Mrs. Geo. McNeil "Short'nin Bread" followed by an encore "Hoodpecker". The New Lisheard trio, Mrs. McNeil, Mrs. Craven and Mrs. Holmes then sang a beautiful number "The Streamlet" and were encored when they sang "Lullaby and Goodnight." Round Table Conference led by Miss McHermant was indeed valuable to everyone and especially the presidents as Miss McHermant gave a talk on program planning and had each president give her suggestions as to ~~how~~ how her branch went about their program planning.

The reports of Standing Committees for Cochrane District were brought in and read ~~and~~ after which a discussion of same took place and different useful suggestions were exchanged and fully explained. After outside delegates and members were invited to accept a half-hour sightseeing tour of New Lisheard the afternoon session was adjourned until 6:30 when everyone together with several invited guests sat down to a Banquet in the basement of the Baptist
