

The importance of mentioning all activities and accomplishments when submitting reports was also stressed by Miss Powell.

Leaflets on "Infantile Paralysis" were distributed to every one present.

Mrs. D. Moore, New Liskard, asked that reports sent to her be compiled reports and not Branch reports.

Miss Powell read a letter asking that reports bear the name of the Branch sending it, clearly, at the top of the front page.

A community song was next, being "Carry me back to old Virginia". Meeting adjourned till evening.

The Delegates were guests, also other visitors, of the Elk Lake Branch, during the evening; and were given a very sumptuous banquet, in the Institute Hall, after the banquet, a very nice entertainment was held presided by Mrs. Rose, New Liskard, Ont.

First on the program was a recitation by Mr. J. M. Cogill, "The Relief of Lucknow". Mr. Cogill also gave a very nice address to the audience.

Next, a piano solo, by Miss Shaye, New Liskard, "Dream of L'one", by Liszt, and an encore, Paderewski's "Minuet in G".

Rev. Father Bart of Elk Lake gave a very fine address on "Peace". Next was a solo by Miss K. Young, "When Irish Eyes are smiling", followed by "L'one's Old Sweet Song".

Mrs. J. M. Cogill, then spoke, the subject "how we cleared our Hall of debt".
