

and the last note that had been paid was burnt in state, by Mrs. Coghill,

"A recitation by Mrs. Chrysler, Charlton, "The Jealous Wife", next, and her verse, "The guilty child."

Next on the program was a very pleasant address by Rev. J. M. Boyd, of United Church, Elk Lake.

Mrs. J. J. Mc. Donnell, Provincial President of W. J. gave a short outline of the work of the Institute.

Mrs. J. M. Coghill, was presented with a beautiful arm chair & footstool, by Mrs. McAuley of Charlton, on behalf of the ^{Seminarian} ~~Cochrane~~ Area Branches of the Women's Inst, of which Mrs. Coghill has been an active member for many years, & a loyal & faithful worker during those years.

Mrs. Coghill gave a very appreciative reply of thanks.

A community song, next, "Silver Threads among the Gold."

Mrs. J. M. McAuley closed the meeting with a vote of thanks for all those who had helped make the evening a success. Adjourned.

The morning session, Sept. 8th. opened in the Institute Hall, with the Lords' Prayer and the "Ode."

Mrs. Chrysler read a report on "Homemaking."

Mrs. Mc. Donnell, spoke, giving some pointers on how to compile reports, etc. followed by a discussion on "Home Economics, homemanship, handicrafts, etc. It was mentioned here that the next Biannual meeting would be held in Toronto at the and that the Royal Winter Fair would make ^{room} for the exhibits.