

On Peace. She stressed the importance for all to study and work in regard to Peace.

Miss Clarke continued - Development of Individual within the Institute. Spoke of Responsibility of Officers Value of discussion in debate, and of demonstrations and the importance of Programme Planning.

Although the responsibility of officers in providing initiative is great - members are necessary, and each convenor and each member should be willing to be made use of. Remember to keep programme broad and varied - mix papers and demonstration - let members 'do' as well as 'hear' things. Bring in outside speakers on occasions when their information can be helpful. Members are responsible to officers whom they should support to make branch successful.

Get help in preparing a paper - be definite when requesting help from 'Loan Library'. Use local library.

Keep topic in mind, and study it out while about duties. Be sure of a definite theme and work it out under headings. Quote to prove authority - this adds force or beauty - Telling source of quotation emphasize good English. Be sure you know your subject and can make it interesting to others.

Moved by Mrs. McAuley seconded by Mrs H.S. Lang that Courtesy Committee write A. J. Parr and express appreciation for reduced rates for those travelling over T. & N.O. Ry. to Convention at Cochrane. Carried

Moved by Mrs. Marwick seconded by Mrs. Wilson that Meeting adjourn for lunch. Carried Afternoon session opened with singing of "Ode".

Mrs. R. A. Dodds presided.

There was a presentation to Mrs. T. J. McDowell of a Pen and Pencil set - during this session. The three districts of Convention area contributed and took her by surprise in this gesture of appreciation for what she had contributed to our