

"The More We Get Together".

Miss Clarke suggested that we have a leader for singing in our local Institutes, and follow the songs of a Popular Author.

On a motion of Mrs W. Chrysler, seconded by Mrs J. Lothian the members adjourned to the Orange Hall, where lunch was served by members of Englehart Institute.

Mrs. J. Lothian presided at the afternoon session, which opened at 1.30.

The Report on Legislation was given by Mrs P. M. Lachlan
New Liskeard

Among the topics studied were "How we are governed", "Women's Rights", "Safety on Highways", "Use of the Ballot", "Municipal Laws" and "General Relief".

The Report on Home Economics was given by Mrs S. E. McCracken
Tomstown.

There were Roll Calls in Home Economics, Demonstrations from the Local Leader Class, Contests, Exhibits of handicraft, Papers and articles concerning health and Home Economics.

The Report on Community Activities and Relief given by Mrs Dan Moore, New Liskeard.

Medical attention was given to those in need. Supplied First Aid Kit to schools, and worked with the Local Red Cross.

The Report on Canadianization by Mrs W. R. Peters, New Liskeard; some of the topics being "The Study of Canadian Exports", "How Canadian places were named", "Study of the Flag", "Canadian Heroes and Heroines", Papers on Can. Songs" Readings from Can. Authors.

A discussion on these Reports was led by Mrs Duke. The Institutes should study the laws of our country and those pertaining to Women and children. We should be loyal to our country, and help others to become good Canadians also train our children to be good citizens.

Miss L. Petty, Home Economics Coach gave an outline of her work among the junior girls.

Then followed Community Singing of "Grandfather's Clock" and "Oh, Susanna".

In her address, Miss Clarke spoke first on Conventions