

The grandfather clock was willed to us by Mrs. Hugh Summers, Fonthill, Ontario, Past President of Federation of Ontario, and Vice-President of the Associated Country Women of the World.

The rocking chair was given by Mrs. Harry Nixon, wife of Harry Nixon, ex M.P.P. and had been in their family many generations.

The old platform rocker in embroidered horsehair came from an old Brantford family.

The table lamp, converted, came from the Ottawa area.

The settee is from Prince Edward County.

The stereoscope came from Nova Scotia.

The braided rug was made by Saltfleet W. I.

The stove, over 100 years old, was in the home of a girl friend of Mrs. Hoodless.

The walnut couch, formerly horsehair, and re-upholstered came from a family in St. George.

The low rocking chair was donated by Miss McKercher, Director of Home Economics, Department of Agriculture.

The four poster bed is from four sisters, Institute members of Fort Erie, in memory of their mother, who organized many Institutes.

A pink tea set (not shown) in a rack on the wall in the dining room were Mrs. Hoodless' own dishes.

A cruet set was donated by Mrs. Phillips in memory of her grandparents, and was given to them in 1891 as a farewell gift.

The Parlour

The Parlour with a view of the Parlour Bedroom

Four blue plates, date back to 1831, given to Mrs. Eliza Frieland, when married, were donated by two grand-daughters in London, Ont.

The beautiful pieced quilt on the bed was made by Wexford W. I. near Markham, Ontario.

The coverlet on the foot of the bed was made in Halton County in 1851 and came from the same place.