

Lifestyle

The method of making the currently popular Roman shades that appear in home decorating illustrations these days was taught at a workshop for leaders last week and Mary Willemsen of Verner was on hand to soak up all possible knowledge on the subject. Above she works at a sewing machine in an attempt to master the fine points of the work.

Workshops
benefit
leaders