

Editorial

Editor's

Skeptic intellectua
but moral

Suzanne LaRochelle

Sorry Wayne... Félicitations à ...

MY APOLOGIES to Wayne and all you readers who just love to read his column. "Shakers and Movers" was really "shaken and moved". I could probably come up with half a dozen excuses for the bad mix-ups in the lay-out however I'll just stick to one. There are still too many our door, you're welcome to use it. It's nice being editor... it seems we always have the last word!

BEAUCOUP de travail a été accompli jusqu'à date par le Comité des Jeux. On tient à vous rappeler ici qu'on recherche de nombreux volontaires pour assister ces personnes-clé dans l'organisation des Jeux. La Tribune vous tiendra au courant des progrès au fur et à mesure qu'ils se développent. On encourage fortement les gens de s'impliquer. Tous ensemble, on fera quelque chose de bien...

CONGRATULATIONS to Miss France Gareau from Verner. In a eastern Ontario see, they were Gareau is a top ing with a cross e Marie and a she was named etitive amateur athlete who is clearly recognized as the most outstanding athlete of the current year."

IT WAS FUN having dinner with rural and farm women last Wednesday. I had a chance to hear different aspects of being a farmer's wife. I was surprised to hear from one of the women that in order to save money on their farm, (they raise pigs), she has learned to look after the pigs herself. "We have over 1500 pigs," she said, "a visit from the vet costs $25." I was amazed when she told me that she is the one who castrates the young pigs!! It would be difficult for me to be a farmer's wife, however since I live in a rural area but do not earn my living from farming, I am a "rural transplant".

MONEY does not make the world go round, but if you have to do without, it can hurt at times. I congratulate Mrs. Rose Nicholls for sticking by her daughter and sending her to New York for modelling competition. I would do the same for my