

The Galena Branch of the Womens Institute met at the home of Mrs Jones on August 2nd 1910.

The meeting was opened by singing "God Save the King" & a prayer.

The minutes were read by L. J. Stewart owing to the absence of the ~~secretary~~ ^{secretary}, the minutes were approved of by the audience.

Three addresses were given 1st by Mrs. Wireman why is autumn so beautiful in nature, compare it with the autumn of our lives, and by Mrs. Bessie Corning Trust, 3rd by Agnes Beckett, how to make the Institute a success, it was decided that three more addresses be given at the next meeting.

One by Mrs. Hackett on, Raising Bread

One by Lila Maswell on, Labor Saving Devices, and a third by Mrs. Leach on Public

It was decided that the members enter into a competition on button hole making each member was to make two button holes on cotton with No 30

thread, Mrs Jones & Mrs Pratt were appointed judges and a prize costing 25 cts was to be awarded to the member whose button holes were considered best by the judges. Miss Beckett joined the Institute & paid her fee. It was decided to hold the next meeting at home of Mrs Wireman. The meeting closed by singing

"God Save the King."