October - 1952.

The October meeting of the Charlton Branch of the Womens Institute was held in the Memorial Hall with Savard, Sunday Creek, and Oak Womens Institutes' members present as guests of the Charlton W. I.

Meeting opened with Institute Ode and Mary Stewart Collicot. The Roll call was "An Interesting place I have visited" which was responded to by nearly everyone, several having folders or clippings to accompany their responses.
Minutes of Sept. meeting were read and approved.
A letter from Mrs. B. Brownlee was read re - W. I. Scholarships for Home - making clubs, nothing definite being decided on about this matter.

Mrs. S. E. McCracken and Mrs. Walter Little were present. Mrs. McCracken spoke briefly on the importance of carrying on Institute work, the
