

Oct. 10, 1963

septs and lack of storage facilities in her own country (India).
Three F.W.F.O. projects: National Foundation ^{1.00} Adelaide Hoodless 10¢ per member. Unesco 367 Plan (comp 1964) units of ^{1.00} Miss J. Eadie and Mrs. Joan Haggerty organized new branches in N.W.T., Lakes in N. Ont. and N. Quebec. Ontario has made a name for herself in supporting projects. $4000.00 cheque presented to Madame Deakhoff by Mrs. Lymburner brought A.C.W.W. out of the 'red'.

F.W.F.O. cup and runner is available thro' J. Eaton Co. Ltd. Constitution committee revise q. 3 years.

Miss Ethel Lapapman's writings are to be printed and made available thro' F.W.F.O. at $2.00 per copy. It will be compiled in six categories.

Mr. L. Trivers and Mrs. B. Brantlee are among six women appointed to consumers of Ontario Food Council. Members are asked to study and become better acquainted with buying methods.

A bi-centennial project adopted by F.W.F.O. "Help make Canada Lovelier". No country can be lovelier than its citizens, so we must make ourselves lovelier within.

National Farm Radio Broadcast "Woman in her place" November 25. National convention in Wolfville N.S. June 1964. Delegate's name to be sent before Jan. 1, 1964.

Branch membership fee only source of income of F.W.F.O. Raise membership fee? maybe 10¢ per member.