

Public Relation's Report was given by Mrs Johnston with as usual the donations, ^{local} to community fire victims, cancer, heart, J. B. scholarships 4 H Clubs. new babies, brides, ~~etc~~: also supported - Centennial projects such as fashion shows. cemetery bus, floats in parades. school fairs, treats for children, see citizens party. Donations to Adelaide Hoodless Homestead.

Sponsoring children, pennies for friendship. Altogether ~~a grand total of 30~~ were made.

Mrs Fairman gave her comments on the above reports. She found them very interesting, compiled well, but should strive for 100% reports, supposing the convenor has to write to the District Conv. asking for her report. Also added, when an Area convenor had anything constructive to add to the reports not to hesitate to do so.

The scholarship report was also given by Mrs Fairman. Six applications had been made. Miss Margaret Johnston who is training at Orillia ~~in the~~ Hospital won the honours of receiving the scholarship. A letter of appreciation was read ~~by~~ from Miss Johnston.
