

The organization meeting of Hoyle Women's Institute took place at the home of Mrs. L. Hartford, Friday Aug. 16th. 11 members and five visitors including visiting officers present Mrs. F. J. Clark District President Miss Leola Line District Secretary Miss Elise Clark Vice President of Shillington branch.

Mrs. Clark opened the meeting by explaining how the first institute was started at Saltfleet Township Westworth county in 1897.

She then explained the objects and aims of Women's Institute to make better homes and communities

To discover stimulate and train leadership. To promote a better understanding of domestic economy, child welfare and to help women acquire sound and improved practices for greater home efficiency.

She then called for a name for the new branch

Moved by Mrs. Hartford

seconded by Mrs. Earnshaw that the name be Hoyle Women's Institute carried.