

After a discussion on the bazaar to be held in November, it was moved by Mrs. Stevenson and second by Mrs. Roach that each member make donations of baking, sewing or crafts and also send written appeals to friends for 25¢ surprise packages for the bazaar.

In order to become more familiar with H. I. procedure, it was moved by Mrs. Cell and second by Mrs. Steane that a paragraph from the Hand Book be read at every meeting, beginning with the ones explaining the work of the various committees.

Mrs. Clark invited Mrs. Steane to read the paragraph relating to Community Activities and Public Relations.

It was moved by Mrs. West and second by Mrs. Stevenson that the school children be invited to help H. I. members.
