

Further plans for our Nov. bazaar included discussion of a bingo game for prizes and money.
Lunch for Sept. 24th was planned.

Mrs. I. Shier read the paragraph from handbook on Citizenship and Education.

Mrs. Anglin read an interesting article from McLeans about the life of Can. poetess Edna Jacques. The poem "Cup of Tea" was read.

A demonstration on the formation of the Union Jack was given by Mrs. Clark.

A contest on leaves of garden flowers was won by Mrs. Anglin.

The meeting was closed with the reading of another of Edna Jacques' poems "It's Little Things".
Lunch was served.

Secy. - Helen West
Pres. - Hilda Clark