

Mrs. Chadbourne, and the meeting closed with the singing of God Save the Queen.

Delicious lunch was served by Mrs. Len Ackeland.

Frances Anderson Sec.

November 27, 1953.

The regular meeting of the Kepling Women Institute took place at the home of Mrs. Paul Engstrom on Nov. 27. Eight members were present.

The meeting came to order with the singing of the Opening Ode. Roll Call - a favorite flower.

The minutes of the previous month were read by the secretary. The minutes were adopted as read by Mrs. Radford and seconded by Mrs. Paul Engstrom. The

It was decided by the members that one kind of cake, cookies and sandwiches would be served at each meeting by the hostess.

A Committee for planning the coming year's programme was formed. Those on the committee are: Mrs. Paul Engstrom, Mrs. Oscar Carlson, Mrs. Radford, the pres. and Sec. Treas. This is to be made up in January.

Mrs. Oscar Carlson invited the members