

Sept. 2nd. Tickets to be 25¢ or 5 for $1.00

Mrs. W. Anderson, home economist and health convenor read an interesting paper on the care of the body from a mental view point.

Mrs. Edna Patterson, visitor from Stanford Institute was asked to speak and chose as her topic - the place of women in the world today - internationally, nationally and locally. She covered briefly the activities of her branch. The speaker was introduced and thanked by Mrs. W. Anderson.

Moved by Mrs. Johnson that the meeting be adjourned. Hostesses were Mrs. Halverson and Mrs. Kulson. Coffee collection - 4.00.

attest: Mrs. Rita French

Pres: Mrs. Edna Engstrom

Special Report.

August 4.

On July 13 a committee meeting was held at the home of Mrs. Carlson to plan the turkey dinner. Mrs. Johnson to report to membership. A rose bowl was sent to Mrs. Carlson while she was in hospital. Our A.C.W.W. towel finally arrived. Our card convenor reports sending get well cards to Diane Johnson & Mrs. Eva Carlson.