

The December 12th meeting was held at the home of Mrs. Hoben. about twenty-one ladies present. Six new members joined making a total of 19. Mrs. Hoben demonstrated "Making Bread with a Mixer," also gave receipt, showed yeast used, showed sample of Bread.

The January 4th 1913 meeting was held at the home of Mrs. Bell. This proved to be a very social programme with musical & recitations etc. It was recommended that the ladies bring some kind of work to the next meeting - There were nineteen members, five new ones.

Saturday Feb. 1st 1913 meeting was held at the home of Mrs. Ross. at 2³⁰ p.m. on a very cold stormy day. fourteen members. A very entertaining programme of music song & recitations. A farewell to Mrs. Hobden, Mrs. Hoben.

Saturday March 1st 1913. meeting. Mrs. James, sixteen members & two visitors. Mrs. Bell & Mrs. Hall won prizes in two contests. entertainment music & song.

May 17th at the home of Mrs. Le Heup. ten members present. During the past several meetings there has been mentioned a discussion of a rest room, (not enough information was presented for me to know just what they meant) However at this meeting it has been agreed the W.I. would open a "Rest Room" in the Mission Room of the English Church, with the use of the stable for $5.00 per month. Mrs. James asked permission to pay the rent, for two months. Also arrangements were made to use Posters to advertise a meeting in June topics to be "Home Nursing & how to be Healthy & Cheerful. The Eau Claire Institute to be invited. Election of officers was held. the only change is Mrs. Le Heup to be second vice pres. Mrs. Smith 1st vice.