

Special Meeting June 17-31

Wed June 17 the W.D. of Me Cool met at the home of Mrs Dan Jarvis to entertain our Annual speaker Mrs Hayes

Our president opened the meeting with the Institute "Ode" after which the afternoon was given over to Mrs Hayes who gave a very interesting talk on Institute Work Mrs Hayes took us back to the pioneer days of the Women's Institute, which had its beginning in Storey Creek in 1897. She explained to us the work and aim of the Institute and how it has expanded, until now it has reached even to South Africa. She told us that all the work should come under three main headings, Education, Community & Social and that each Institute should point its endeavours towards all three. During her remarks on Education Mrs Hayes asked us if it would be possible for our branch to collect all the pioneer history of our neighborhood that we could send our report to the Historical Research Convenor Miss Appelle of Georgetown. Mrs Hayes closed by giving a beautiful poem "I would be true" Discussed recreation for young people. Miss E. Shipps, asst. and had delightful luncheon Mrs O Miller
