- July, 1938 -

The Thornloe Women's Institute met on July 6th at the home of Mrs J. W. Cragg with the President in the Chair and an attendance of fifteen members and five visitors.

Meeting opened with the singing of the Ode, followed by the Roll Call which was answered by a patriotic saying. Mrs. Spencer paid her fees.

The minutes of the last regular meeting and of the Director's meeting held June 20th were then read, and there being no omissions or corrections, were declared approved by Mrs. Reid.

The plays which the Institute bought some time ago were brought to the meeting by Mrs. Swayne and given into the possession of the Secretary.

It was moved by Mrs. Swayne & seconded, that the Institute library be moved from Mrs. Cragg's to Mrs. Reid's so that the people of that neighbourhood might have a chance to read the books carried.

Moved by Mrs. J. E. Cragg & seconded that we send Mrs. Herriston a valued blanket the Institute has on hand. Carried.
