May 27, 1964 Warren, Ont.
The fifteenth district of Kipling annual meeting was held in the Warren Community hall with Kipling as hostess branch. Mrs. J. Campbell, president brought the meeting to order by asking members to repeat in unison the Mary Stewart Colbeck. Mrs. D. Montgomery, president of Kipling branch welcomed the fifty three guests and members present. A corsage for the oldest lady present went to Mrs. D. H. McLeod.
Mrs. Campbell introduced Mrs. C. E. Yeates, provincial board member, Mrs. C. King, home economist and Miss Vera Burke representative of the enthusiasm branch.
Before the business of the morning began, Mrs. Campbell asked members to stand for two minutes silence out of respect for members who have passed on in the past year - especially Mrs. DeForest - past president.
The minutes of the 1963 district meeting were heard and approved.
Mrs. Campbell in her report mentioned the disbanding of Saturday branch, the party at Bassett house and the baby show.
The new district directors were asked to come to the
