

MINUTES OF ANNUAL MEETING

Date..... Place.....

The safety project for 1967 is Safety in the Kitchen.

Miss Jeanette, home economist spoke of the 4th. girls Club - with 2 achievement days this year. Two girls from this district will attend the Sulph. Conference. Mrs. Eileen Boyle will succeed Miss Jeanette in this district. Mrs. Moore presented Miss Jeanette with an Adelaide Healders spoon as a farewell gift and wished her luck & luck.

The following reports were presented and their adoption moved: Citizenship and education - Mrs. J. Dugnette - Home Economics & Health - Mrs. E. Johnson - Historical Research & Current events - Mrs. H. Smith for Mrs. P. Engstrom - Safety - Mrs. V. Halverson for Mrs. P. Engstrom - Director - Mrs. S. M. Morris - Resolutions - Mrs. S. Moore, Agriculture & Can. Industries - Mrs. W. Devolin, Public Relations - Mrs. J. Dugnette for Mrs. J. Campbell - seconded by Mrs. S. Moore - and

Pennies for friendship were presented by each branch - in cash, cheque, pennies in jars, rolled and as an antique for the Centennial maple leaf - Ladina - 90 - Kipling - 4.36 Mattawa 5.30
 Tip. J. etu - 6.06 Phelps - 4.10 Rutherglen - 2.00
 T. Hill - 5.85 Trout Mills - 6.27 - total - 34.84.

At this point a delicious lunch was served by members of the hostess branch. Members had an opportunity at lunch time to purchase from the district sale table & Shewan's Hill sale table.

The afternoon session was called to order with Mrs. Moore presiding. Mrs. H. Smith, repres. on the ladies auxiliary to Casselholm read her report.

Mrs. Penny representing the home economist branch of W. 100. reminded members that this is the 70th anniversary of the founding of the W. She told us something of the activities in the branches in the far north. Brochures are available free of