

Minutes for February 3rd

The meeting of the Riverside Women's Institute for Feb. 3rd was held at the home of Mrs. Wells. The president presided Musang the Vice followed by the Lois Boyd. There were 8 members present answering the roll call with a Valentine's Recipe.

The minutes for the January meeting were read and duly approved.

It was agreed that we answer the roll call this meeting with a St. Patrick Joke.

We discussed our plan for making a quilt and chose our pattern.

Plans were furthered in holding a bazaar and Valentine's sale in the school house, lunch to take the form of hot dogs and a drink. This was dated for Feb. 14th.

The Secretary gave a talk on "Emergencies in the Home". Mrs. Kant offered her home for our March meeting. The President moved that the meeting be adjourned. "God Save the King" was sung in closing, and lunch was served by Mrs. Wells.

Mrs. J. Edwards, Sec.

Michael Tuck

Moved by Mrs. Wells, seconded by Cherna that the minutes be adapted as read.
