OSGOODE

Dear Mrs Smith.

Out.

March 7th. 66

It is always a pleasure to hear from you, no matter what the reason, and I am always happy to be of assistance, ~~in any way~~ in any way. I can.

Now regarding your problem:- As the motion to which you refer was only a motion, it was only good for one year, and for it to remain in effect, should have been renewed each year. This applies also as to how much ~~can~~ ^{the} Executive should spend in case of emergency, for things that arise unexpectedly, such as wreaths etc. ^{unless a by-law is drawn up, to cover these business.} It is wise to attend to these things at the Annual Branch meetings. If this had been a by-law, it would not need voting on yearly.

Once a motion is passed at a meeting, it cannot be changed at that meeting, but some-one could give a notice of motion to have it changed, at the next meeting (a month's notice is necessary) or a member could make a motion at a meeting to have it amended or rescinded. In the latter case (rescinded) a 2/3 vote is necessary if a notice of motion hasn't been given, just majority vote if notice of motion has been given. See Page 78 Paragraph 8. As no one moved to have
