

good for the one year. ⁽³⁾ This new one, now under discussion will only remain in effect for the year, unless it is renewed yearly, or made into a by-law.

I have enclosed a copy of a course on Programme Planning and Parliamentary Procedure which was given at Hipissing Junction, which I attended. I also attended one at Trent Mills, given by Mrs. James Haggerty. If you would care to make a copy of it, please do so. On Page 2 underlined is the paragraph, which will interest you, as I am sure the whole thing will.

I am on a committee of 2 to collect and present Centennial ideas for OS. 600 P.E. celebrations. all the branches in this district are to take ideas to the 1966 District Annual. The time to start planning is now, as its going to take cash as well as hard work.

I have written to a pottery firm to find out if they are manufacturing any items, such as souvenirs - mugs etc. which could be purchased cheaply
