

and would make a lasting ⁽⁴⁾ gift for the school children.

We have in our family mugs, & goblets & plates, which are souvenirs of Queen Victoria's jubilee & the coronations up to our present Queens. I still remember getting my mug at Queen Victoria's jubilee. I wasn't too old at the time, but the meaning of the celebration has been indelibly in my mind through getting the gift mug. If I get a satisfactory answer, I'll let you know.

Well, Joan, I'm really proud of you, & the contribution you are making to W.I. work. I shall definitely be at the Area Convention in North Bay (God willing) so keep & up the good work. You have the ability, & the personality, so please don't think otherwise.

I still feel impressing can lead the way in many ways & that northern members, are second to none. If some of these women down here had had to face the difficulties & hardships connected with W.I. work, that you women face, they'd soon fold up. I hope this letter has helped you. These misunderstandings are usually caused through lack of knowledge on the part of some of the members. If only all would
