5. Moved by Mrs L. Morrissey, seconded by Mrs Rowe that Mrs John Morrissey be librarian. Carried.

A debate was held by four of the members.

"Resolved that <sup>the</sup> Country affords better opportunities for the development of the mind than does the City." Negative: Mrs John Morrissey and Mrs Laurence Morrissey. Affirmative: Miss Maggie Watson & Miss Annie Morrissey. Owing to the absence of Mrs John Mac Farlane & Mrs Sullivan who were on the negative side, Mrs Neal & Miss Irene Ryan <sup>on the affirmative</sup> did not give their points.

The judges announced the verdict in favour of the negative. Much praise was due all the debaters of both sides, and the debate was enjoyed by all.
