

A letter from the Secretary of the N. I. at Donald P. O. was read. This lady requested Sarah N. I. to look after a needy family in Sharp Tp. After some discussion as to how the Institute could do this, the matter was left for a Director's Meeting. Another letter requesting help was also left.

Mrs. Neal called on Mrs. Field and the latter gave an interesting, explanatory paper on "League of Nations". Mrs. McAuley then put on a "Flower Contest" which proved very entertaining. Mrs. Hayes won first prize - a geranium in flower. Mrs. A. Thurston, second a bouquet - and Mrs. Kilbride Consolation, a lily.

All joined in singing several old songs, and a sociable time was spent.

Lunch was then served by Sarah Ladies.

A hearty vote of thanks was tendered Sarah N. I. by the Institute's visitors.

Roll call next time, to be "Where and how I first met my husband."

Meeting closed with God Save the King.

Pres.

Sec. Mrs. Ed. Cuddy

A director's meeting was held at 8 p.m. Sat. evening at Cuddy's. Those present were Mrs. Bell, Mrs. Ryan, Pummell, Moussey, Neal, & Cuddy.

The directors discussed the business left over from
