Minutes of the regular monthly meeting of the Seward
Women's Institute, held in the Community Hall on Tuesday afternoon April 13.

Meeting opened at 2.15 with the President in the chair.

Meeting opened with the Institute Ode.

The attendance was twenty-four members and three visitors.

The motto for the month is ^{One new member joined.} "A fool who knows he is a fool is a wise man."

The Roll Call was responded to by members telling of the "most embarrassing moment of my life."

The financial report was: Cash on Hand $1.97

Receipts $3.00. Expenditures 1.53 Bal on Hand 4.44

Correspondence was then read, which included several letters of appreciation from those who received fruit from the Institute, when sick with the flu.

A short discussion followed on the Home Economics
Programme, but as we had just got the books, there was not time to decide on any definite course, so it was left over till the next meeting.

Moved by Mrs Tom O'Grady and seconded, that the members pay the admission fee (25c) and donate the lunch on the evening of the Play (Carried unanimously)

The Programme consisted of Community Singing and a
