

tables for the beach. Carried

Mrs Surtees volunteered to look after the purchase of materials for the picnic tables.

The programme followed which took the form of a debate on the following subject.

"Should we Educate our Daughters?"

After a very lively discussion on the subject it was decided that the affirmative side had won with a score of six points to four.

The meeting was adjourned and an enjoyable lunch was served by Mrs. H^{rs} Bott assisted by the girls.
