

MINUTES OF ANNUAL MEETING

Date

Place

from a flour sack, soap making, pickle making. 7 quilts made - most to war brides. Moved by Mrs L. Robertson - seconded by Mrs. Dorothy Brantley that this report be adopted as read - carried.

Publicity - Mrs. J. R. Hamilton - absent and no report sent.

The President commented on the display of handicrafts.

Mrs R. A. Dodds of Clute was guest speaker of the forenoon session. She commented on Secretary's report very interesting. She reported on the December and April meetings of the F. W. I. D. Board. She said we had wonderful opportunities to do our best, and try to organize new branches. "It is only by our facts we are known." A farm woman does not live within 4 walls. The Fall meeting was election of officers, the Spring meeting dealt with reports. In Home Economics she recalled a good Roll Call would be "How to make a Home out of a House." The qualities of a pleasing housewife. There were 89 districts taking the Co-operative Program last year. There were 301 Homemaking Clubs, 214 Garden clubs. Mrs. Dodds thanked the South Tennessee District W.D. for representing it on the Board.

Mrs. J. R. Peters thanked Mrs. Dodds for her splendid report. It was moved that we adjourn for luncheon which was held in the Presbyterian Church.

The meeting convened again at 1:30 p.m. with the voting delegates taking the centre seats. The Roll Call by branches was taken with the following branches represented - Branches from Cane, Clover Valley, Dymond, Hanbury, McBesta, New Salem, Rockley, Sumner, Sutton Bay, Thornley, and Palm Valley.

An interesting reading was given by Mrs. Spaulding.