Moved by Mrs. H. Houston see Miss Bowman that we enter exhibit of articles in handicraft at Fall Fair

Letter read from Miss L. Phippen asked that the Thornloe Girls Club show exhibit at the Skowhegan Institute Convention in Winterson this fall Program followed with the Girls Club taking over. A table set for two was set displayed as they had done on Achievement Day - commented on by Vera Miller.

Each unit member was given a question pertaining to the unit Club Girl Entertainers ^{was} answered by one of the members from the Homemaking Club.

True & false contest on etiquette was also done. Miss Joan Bowman then described the 4H. Homemaking spoon which a Club Member gets after completing her unit.
Also was passed around to each person to see.

Jane Lippert was presented with a 4H. pin by Mrs. Burns being the only member present who had not see one before.
