M. Burns gave report of Annual meeting, saying that Thornloe Branch is not up-to-date with History for the District Book, that we need to watch for dates of coming Centennial events, such as Caravans, and quoting from Mrs. Penny, the guest speaker's talk, "Let Canada be proud of the Women's Institute" for on February 1st, 1967 will be its 70th Anniversary, and it is Canada's Brain Child.

Mrs. Ross convenor of Historical Research and Current events gave an interesting talk on Historical work for our History Book, with suggestions for members bringing in the History of their own farm and one other farm (neighbours) and compile Family Trees if possible.

"We want a colourful history, with stories, quaint sayings and ways of doing things, and interesting things that have happened on the farms."

M. Peebles thanked Mrs. Ross, and M. Burns moved adjournment of meeting for social hour.
