

have moved into their new home in the village.

Minutes read and approved. Thank you notes read from Eddy Coleman & Mary Burns, and brought from Ada Davis.

After some discussion it was decided that D. Peepack would make candy and perhaps an apron could be purchased for Auction Sale at the coming Convention, and several would have antiques for the display, and at least 4 would attend. L. Bowman agreed to make signs to be used in health where quilting would be in progress at New Liskeard Fair.

Because of Convention Dates, Oct. 4 and 5 it was decided to hold next meeting on Sept. 28th.

For Programme on Health, papers were read and discussed on "Sleep" and danger of children and adults having "Worms".

Motion of Adjournment - D. Peepack - for the social hour.
