

December, 1966

December 13th, 1966 at 8 p.m. a combined Christmas meeting of Thornloe Women's Institute and Thornloe United Church Women at the home of Mrs. R. T. Bowman, with 8 members present and Mrs. Carmen Stubiński, President of South Ferriskaming H.O. and Miss Jean Crosskill, Home Economist and the United Church Women from Hanbury were special guests.

After some carol singing, Mrs. G. Bowman, who was responsible for the Devotional, presented, The First Canadian Christmas Carol "The Huron Indian Carol" written in 1641 by Father Jean De Brébeuf, with Sharon Hillcoat, Cheryl Morrow and Debbie Craig, pupils from Kerns Central School portraying with song and costume a scene from an early Christmas in Canada. A lovely way to usher in the New Centennial Year.

J. Houston read, "I rejoice at Christmas" by Nathaniel Coker - a few too recently find the joy of a Christian's Christmas. Roll Call - "A Navarrete Christmas card" was well answered.

Minutes of both groups were read and approved. "Thank you" notes were read. Final plans were made for
