13 girls present. The president, Cathy Jones, opened the meeting and the girls repeated the 4H pledge. They discussed and answered questions on blenders and energy-saving appliances. The girls then learned procedures for the making of crepes and had the enjoyment of whipping some up. They made two types, dessert crepes which had a filling of hot apple and cinnamon, and snack crepes which contained ice cream and were covered with cherry sauce. The end results were tasted and enjoyed by everyone present.

On Wednesday, March 5 the 4H club members, The Morganston Country Cooks, met at the home of leader, Mrs. Helen Clarke. The girls got quickly to work and learned how to make chicken cacciatore. It was simply prepared and very tasty. They also learned how to make tortillas and tacos as tortilla parties are very popular at this time. The girls learned the importance and purpose of the Canadian Standards Association mark of approval for many household appliances. Roll call was answered by telling of the stir-fried recipe made at home.
