

Hot time in Colborne!

Not as easy as it looks -- this team in the Summerfest Bed Race had such a hard time with the three-man skis, they came in last.

Tiger face -- Kaitlin Leigh, 7, of Brighton enjoyed face-painting at Summerfest, choosing a tiger design for her own disguise.

Racing down the road -- The Castleton Sports Club team (above, centre) came close second in the bed race.

Proud of himself -- Caleb Chapman, infant son of Diane and Stan Chapman of Colborne, came first in the Baby Contest among boys 10 to 18 months.

Streetscape -- Artist Chris Dingsdale stands above mural of Colborne he created while Jo-Anne Beyak of the Art Gallery of Northumberland oversees stencilling and signing by members of the community.

Mr. Cool -- Kyle McMurray was taking in Summerfest accompanied by his grandparents, Linda and Gary. Looks like he's pretty much got the world by the tail.
