1994 George Victor McDonald

George V. McDonald, a resident of Brighton for the past four years and a previous resident of Colborne (three years), Castleton and Toronto, died following a brief illness, at Trenton Memorial Hospital on Thursday, Feb. 10, 1994. He was 83 years of age.

Born in Oshawa on September 29, 1910, he was the son of the late Herbert McDonald and the late former Minnie O'Dell. Predeceasing him are his wives. His first wife was Doris Cooper, whom he married in 1940. Doris died in 1982. George was remarried to Marguerite Gerin in 1984. Marguerite died in 1986.

Also predeceasing him are two brothers: Wilfred and William; and two sisters: Winnifred Bishop and Hazel McDonald. He is survived by his dear son, Victor and his wife Anne of Codrington. George is lovingly remembered by his grandchildren: Martin, Jason and Jessica.

George farmed for most of his life in the Castleton area and assisted other area farmers. He enjoyed his television and sports.

The late Mr. McDonald rested at the Jolliffe Funeral Home, Warkworth. Funeral service was held in the chapel on Monday, Feb. 14, at 1:30 p.m. Rev. Douglas Brown officiated. Spring interment will be in Castleton Cemetery.

Bearers were: Mario Benedetti, Wayne Ducie, Morris Tait, Gordon Allchurch, Harold McDonald and Norman Bishop.
