Hot summertime book choices

Tempting titles

This month, Colborne Public Library is home to a wide assortment of new books. The library staff and board urge you to come in during our open hours and enjoy some spring and summer reading.

Among our new volumes added to the reference section are the following: Canada's Baseball Legends by Jim Shearon; Catalogue Mart by Anne Malik; The Crimes, Detection and Death of Jack the Ripper by Jane Beirmann; The Downing Street Years by Margaret Thatcher; Drug Wise: A Book About Safe Drug Use For Older Women; The Last Dance: Murder in Canada by Neil Boyd; Laugh, I Thought I'd Die: My Life With A.L.S. by Dennis Kaye; Small Claims Court Guide for Ontario by Jennifer Young; Speaker's and Toastmaster's Handbook by H. Prochnow; The Tarnished Crown by Anthony Holden; Understanding Canadian Non-prescription Drugs by Brian Berube.

There are two new children's audio cassettes available: Wee Sing Around the World; and Wee Sing Nursery Rhymes. Each comes with songbook.

Among the adult fiction added to the library collection...

There will be yet another Great Library Book Sale in the lobby area of the town hall on July 2 featuring Canadian books in honour of the Canada Day holiday and in conjunction with the Colborne Sidewalk Sale.

Discarded library books sell for a very low price and there is always something to suit every taste.

The book sale will begin at 10 a.m. and end at 3 p.m. See you at the library!
