

McCormack 50th anniversary

Former Colborne couple now live in Frankford

Helen and Earle McCormack of R.R. 1, Frankford, formerly of Colborne, celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary Saturday, May 25, at Trenton Royal Canadian Legion hall.

They were married May 25, 1946, in Frankford United Church. Rev. H. H. Lackey officiated.

Helen received their guests wearing a white two-piece dress with a gold rose corsage. She wore the same gold and pearl necklace that she had worn 50 years before. It was given to her by her Grandmother Bird and had been given to her by her husband, Helen's grandfather, Wm. Bird.

Mrs. McCormack's wedding dress was on display.

Mr. McCormack wore a gold rose boutonniere.

All their children attended. Sons and sons-in-laws wore gold boutonnieres, also their two- and three-year old grandsons.

Bridesmaid Barbara Reynolds and Mrs. McCormack's daughters, daughters-in-law and granddaughter wore gold corsages.

Ushers Frank and Dan McCormack were present also Earle's school teacher, Ralph Armstrong of Batawa.

Earle's gift to Helen was an anniversary ring.

Approximately 250 guests attended. The anniversary cake was made and decorated by Helen.

The McCormacks said they were overwhelmed by the attendance of so many friends and relatives. They received many cards, gifts, best wishes, certificates, plaques and a letter from Queen Elizabeth II.
