The Tweed News/SHANNON BINDER BRAY

In fond memory

Milton McTaggart (L) presented the Tweed & Area Heritage Centre with a memorial on behalf of his wife, Doris, the afternoon of October 17th. Accepting the painting of St. John's Anglican Church, Moneymore, by Edna Henderson was Heritage Centre Curator Evan Morton. The painting was commissioned by Doris Alexander McTaggart in November 1988 just following the closure of the church in April. The church was built in 1894 and Mrs. McTaggart was a member there for fifty years. Mr. McTaggart relayed it was his wife's wish the painting be given to the Heritage Centre.
