

Local student to join Honduran medical brigade

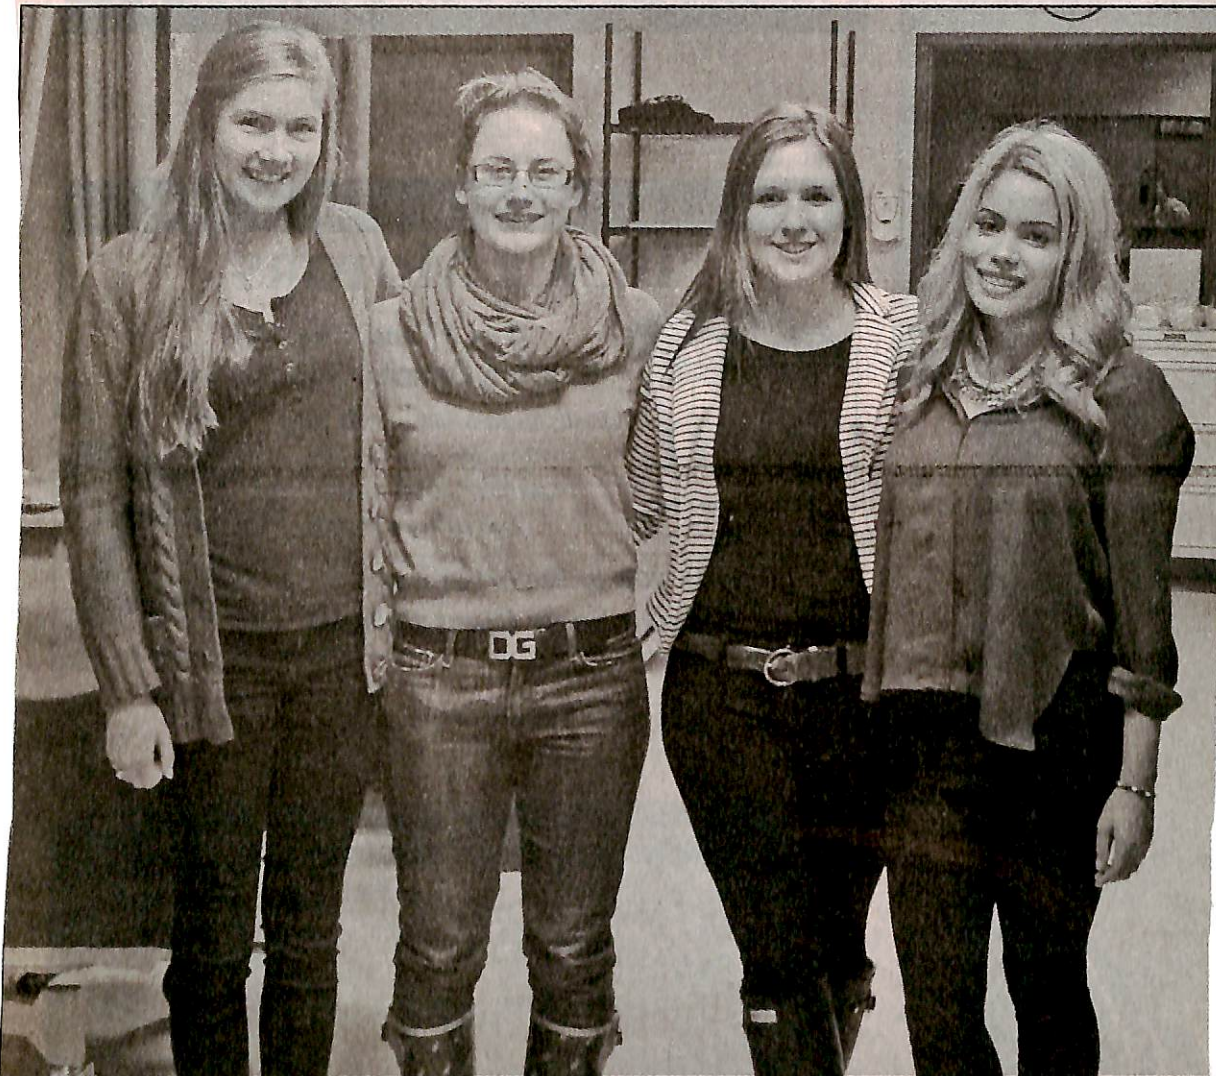

Photo Submitted

Nursing students to volunteer in Honduras

Second year Trent University nursing students, from left, Erin Riddell, Miranda Jones, Meghan Pedersen and Danielle Hanley, will be part of a medical brigade travelling to Honduras this February. Pedersen, from Tweed, is seeking medical, financial and non-medical donations to assist with the mission.