Thomasburg's outstanding volunteers

Peter Snell, representing the Thomasburg Hall Committee, presented awards to outstanding volunteers who had worked tirelessly as volunteers for the Thomasburg Hall. He noted that the hall now has more bookings than even before thanks to the people involved. Snell presented Al and Eve Anderson with volunteers appreciation plaques for their dedication to the hall. Snell also presented a plaque to Doreen White on behalf of her late husband Tom who passed away in 2011 who also volunteered an incredible amount of time at the hall. Both the Andersons and White were awarded the plaques for their outstanding service to the hall. Front row Eve and Al Anderson, back row from left Bill Phillips, Thomasburg Hall committee representative, Peter Snell, Doreen White and Jo-Anne Albert, Mayor, Municipality of Tweed.
