

July 8th 1967

HIS 97TH BIRTHDAY — William J. White is shown cutting his birthday cake as he celebrated his 97th birthday Friday at the Greystone Nursing Home. Born near Chesley Lake he has lived all his life in this district. He has one daughter, Janet, Mrs. James Ebey of Toronto, two grand children, and 9 great grand children. He worked in stores in Southampton, Allenford, farmed for many years, and owned a store in Allenford. During the war he worked at Dominion Plywoods helping to build the famous Mosquito fighter bomber. He enjoys good health. (Sun-Times' Staff Photo)