

Wednesday, May 15, 1985

The Allenford Library was officially opened on Wednesday evening, by Alex Lamont, chairman of the Bruce County Library Board, who cut the ribbon as members of the Allenford Library Committee look on - Cora Blacklock, Amabel representative; Mr. Lamont, Anna Farrow, chairman of the committee; Fran Johnston, Vera Evans, Sharon Middleton, Branch Supervisor; Bill Ferris, Reeve of Amabel and Allan Gordon, Arran's representative. Construction of the $28,000 project began in November and was completed in February. Over $9,000 was raised through private donations, as well as $5,000 from both Arran and Amabel Township. A deficit of approximately $4,000 remains to be raised.

New Allenford library is officially opened

The official opening of the new Allenford Library was held on Wednesday, May 8, 7:30 p.m.

Chairperson for the event was Mrs. Anna Farrow. A brief history of the project was read by Branch Supervisor Mrs. Sharon Middleton. Greetings and congratulations were given by Mrs. Joyce Johnston, Bruce County Librarian, Mr. Bill

Ferris, Amabel Township Reeve, Mr. Ivan Melhausen, Bruce County Warden, Mr. Erik Thomson, Regional Library Board and Mr. Alan Gordon, Arran Township.

Regrets that they were unable to attend the opening were sent by Mr. Eddie Sargent, M.P.P. and Mr. Clint Lawson, Chairman, Saugeen Region.

The building was dedicated by Mr. Baine Milroy, United Church Minister.

The ribbon was cut by Mr. Alex Lamont, Chairman of the Bruce County Library Board assisted by the local committee, Mrs. Anna Farrow, Mrs. Fran Johnston, Mrs. Vera Evans, Mrs. Sharon Middleton, Mrs. Cora Blacklock and Mr. Alan Gordon. Everyone was invited to partake of refreshments and to look over the new building.

Tickets are now on sale for a beautiful home made quilt which is now on display in the library.

Parents are reminded to pick up their free admission tickets for their children for the May 25th Puppet Show, "The Three Little Pigs".