

January Current Events

World Wide The influenza epidemic in Gt. Britain is spreading through London & the west & south of England. It has killed hundreds of people. Undertakers say delays in burials are up to 15 days.

Policewomen have been introduced in Vienna Austria. A force of 25 females have completed their training & have started to work.

A Quebec bridge collapsed last night near Three Rivers. Four cars are still trapped under the ice. Reason for collapse is unknown.

Local

Mr. & Mrs. J. K. MacLennan of Islamis celebrated their 50th Wedding Anniversary on Wed. They received cong. from King & Queen.

Orland Aveny has invested in a new 1949 Pontiac

Last night was coldest this winter with temp. falling to 10 below. At Sudbury it was 45 below.

The editor of the Bowmanville news "Mr. Jones" had been in the hospital with a serious illness for some time. On his 1st day out he was walking down street and saw his nurse. He said "Hello nurse". She look surprised, certain she had never seen the man before & wondered at a stranger speaking to her. Then all of a sudden she recognized him. She said "Oh hello, I hardly knew you it's the 1st time I have seen you with your clothes on."