

June 1951

SCR PVI - 7

1. Miniature Blizzard at Lethbridge cancels big Stampede Programme. It was the latest June snow on record in Calgary with a low of 32 degrees.

2. Canadian wounded in Japan hospital will soon be eating Canadian strawberries and ice cream. A Vancouver women's auxiliary has arranged for 400 pounds of the delicacy to be flown here by Canadian Pacific Airlines.

3. Mrs. Hattby of Millerton found the lucky creamery dollar in her cream cheque which entitled her to $10.00

4.

Just a year ago ~~today~~ the world was shocked by a report that North Korean troops had invaded South Korea. To many it seemed like the end of the United Nations and the beginning of World War Three.

Yet on the eve of the anniversary Jacob Malik, Russian delegate to the United Nations, announces a Soviet proposal for peace which has a more realistic note than any previous offer ~~out of Peking~~. Mr. Malik said in a broadcast that Moscow believes that the first step toward peace should be discussions leading to an armistice and withdrawal of all troops from the 38th parallel.

5.

27 nations show goods at Toronto

There were badminton birds from Pakistan, bobby pins from Britain, gold-stained candle holders from Italy and cigarette snufflers from Israel, at the International Trade Fair which opened the other day in Toronto.

Merchants of 27 countries laid their goods before the public in a gigantic display of world industry.

Trade Minister Howe and Sir Robert Sinclair, the British industrialist who opened the fair, tried to describe it in luncheon addresses.

They both said, in effect, that Canada and Britain are going to do their best to see that people in all countries have a chance to work, to make things, and sell them to one another.

6. One of our favourite cowboy singers Carl Heywood has a new baby boy