

SMITH—Ronald and Margaret (nee Campbell) happily announce the arrival of their daughter, Laura Lynne, on July 3, 1973 at St. Mary's Memorial Hospital, St. Marys.

ESKRICK - Kenneth and Lynda, R.R. 5 Kincardine are happy to announce the birth of their son Dwayne Kenneth, 6 lbs. on Tuesday November 27, 1973.

McKEE—To Diane and Dean, RR 5, Kincardine, a daughter, Vicki-Lynn, 7 lb. 1 oz., on Saturday, March 9, 1974.

Friends and neighbours of Miss Betty Convay met on Tuesday evening in the basement of Chalmers Church to honor her on her approaching marriage. Mrs. Angus McArthur acted as chairlady for a short program.

The bride-to-be was presented with a swivel rocker, table lamp and candy dish from the community and several other gifts. Betty thanked everyone and invited them to her home to see her trousseau. A delicious lunch was served by the committee in charge.

COLWELL-COOPER

St. Matthew's Anglican Church, Kingarf was the setting for the November 3 wedding of Gladys Mabel Cooper and Stephen Richard Colwell. The

The bride is the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elroy Cooper, RR 5 Kincardine, and the groom is the youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Colwell, 910 Queen St., Kincardine.

An evening wedding at Chalmers United Church, Kincardine Township, was the setting for the marriage of Elizabeth Ann (Betty) Convay and George Leonard Obokata on May 19, 1973. Reverend Robert Clyde officiated.

The soloist, Mrs. Arno Kelly, Kincardine, was accompanied by Mrs. Ron Smith of Denfield at the organ.

Parents of the bride are Mr. and Mrs. Duncan James Convay of RR 2, Tiverton, Ontario, and the groom is the son of Mr. George Obokata of London and Mrs. Mary Obokata of New York.

WILLIAMS-ROBINSON

The Church of Messiah, Kincardine was the setting for the November 10 wedding of Carol Ann Robinson and Wayne Frederick Williams. Red carnations, white daisies and candles accented the beauty of the church. Reverend J.R. King officiated the double ring ceremony.

The bride is the second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Robinson, Kincardine, and the groom, the eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Williams, Tiverton.