

HAROLD E. AVERY

The death occurred suddenly of Mr. Harold E. Avery in Timmins, on September 24, 1973. Mr. Avery was born in Armow on April 18, 1913 to the late Albert Avery and the late Lavina Collins.

Mr. Avery is the beloved husband of Mynona Palmer and dear father of Mrs. June Taylor of Timmins and Julie, Mrs. Frank Mahaffy of Tiverton. He also leaves to mourn six grandchildren and two sisters, Mrs. Ed Farrell and Mrs. Jack Anderson of Kincardine. He was predeceased by four brothers and three sisters.

MRS. OTTO HEWITT

Mrs. Otto Hewitt, the former Rachel (Rae) Arnold passed away in the Kincardine Hospital on November 28 after five month's illness. She was in her seventy-sixth year.

She taught school for ten years before settling on the farm on the fifth line in 1930. They moved to Bervie in 1962.

Mourning their loss are her husband, one son John A. and his wife Marjorie, two grandsons Bill and Bob and two step grandsons Jim and Harvey Cragg of Hyde Park.

Also left to mourn are three brothers. One brother and two sisters predeceased her.

STANLEY J. OSTROWSKI

Stanley J. Ostrowski, passed away at St. Joseph's Hospital, Ann Arbor, Michigan on Saturday, November 24, 1973.

He was born on May 29, 1926 in Detroit, Michigan. On August 11, 1962 he married Catherine Evans, who survives, along with one sister, Mrs. Virginia Lesniak of Michigan and thirteen nieces and nephews.

WILLIAM MCKENZIE

William McKenzie, formerly of Kincardine township, passed away in Detroit on December 5, 1973. He was born in 1891, son of Murdoch McKenzie and Katherine McLeod.

He was a member of the Flying Corps during World War I.

Left to mourn his passing are Constance Seymour, his wife; a brother George of Kincardine; sisters Janet McConnell and Christina Ibbitson of Mildmay.

JOHN JOSEPH HODGINS

John Joseph Hodgins passed away at his home in Greenock Township on Dec. 13, 1973 as a result of a coronary attack. For some time previous he had been in poor health.

Born March 3, 1915 in Kinloss Township, he was the eldest son of the late Samuel Hodgins and Emily Stanley. The family moved to the 2nd of Bruce, 1918, where he attended Sunday School at St. Paul's Presbyterian Church in Glamis and public school at School Section 4 Bruce.

On February 27, 1943, he married Florence Lewis of Kincardine Township. They resided on the 10th concession of Kincardine township until the fall of 1945, then moved to the 6th of Greenock where he resided until his death.

Besides his wife, he is survived by four sons William of Kinloss township, Edward of Kincardine township, Thomas and Charles both at home, two grandchildren, and three brothers James of Kinloss, Francis of Kincardine township and Stanley of Glamis.

MARY JANE HOLTZ

There passed away suddenly on Friday the 21st of December 1973 Mary Jane Holtz in her 90th year.

Born in Bruce township she was the daughter of the late Theodore Holtz and Mary Jane Grogan.

In August 1908 she was married to Walter James Shelton who predeceased her eight years ago last June.

Her entire married life was spent on the 9th concession of Kincardine township until retiring to Kincardine several years ago.

Her family consists of two sons Herbert and James of Kincardine township and one daughter Ruby, Mrs. Robert Hardie of Kincardine.

She was predeceased by two daughters, five sisters and five brothers.

WILLIAM MACKENZIE THACKER

William MacKenzie Thacker passed away in his eightieth year at the Saugeen Memorial Hospital Southampton on Sunday January 20, 1974.

He was born in Kinloss Township June 7, 1894, son of the late Edward and Isobel (MacKenzie) Thacker. In 1920 he married the former Jane Irene Stewart and resided at Kingarf where he farmed, later moving to lot 28, concession nine of Kincardine Township.

Upon retirement William took up residence in Tiverton until the passing of his wife in 1967. He then spent his succeeding years with his sons Earl and Ralph and more recently resided at Ripley.

Left to mourn his passing are two sons, Earl of Sauble Beach, Ralph of Bramalea and five grandchildren. He was predeceased by one daughter, Bernice in 1940 and by one brother Latchford.

HAROLD ELMO COLLINS

Harold Elmo Collins of RR 5, Kincardine, passed away in the Kincardine and District General Hospital on Mar. 3, 1974, as a result of cancer.

Mr. Collins was born on the fifth concession of Kincardine Township on April 13, 1905, a son of Harry Collins and Sarah Ann Griffith.

He married Ina May Needham in the Bervie Anglican Parsonage in November, 1931. He was an active choir member and elder of Chalmers United Church.

Mr. Collins is survived by his wife, three sons, Mervyn W. Collins, RR 5, Kincardine, Burton H. Collins of Kincardine and Bevan W. Collins of Galt; one daughter, Gwenyth (Mrs. Robert E. Farrell) of RR 1, Kincardine and ten grandchildren.

He is also survived by four brothers and four sisters--

Wilbert Collins, RR 2 Kincardine, Hamlin Collins, Kincardine, Nelson Collins, Huntville, and Hiram Collins, Point Clarke; Mrs. Verna Helm, Kincardine; Mrs. Treva McIntosh, Kincardine, Mrs. Lyla MacKinnon, Tiverton and Mrs. Merle Johnson, RR 4, Kincardine.

EMMA OUELLETTE

Mrs. Emma Irene Ouellette of 369 Chappus Street, Windsor passed away on March 13 in Windsor Western Hospital in her 71st year following a short illness.

She was born at Armow, the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elliot Jarrrell, and attended Armow Public School.

Surviving are a daughter and four sons in Windsor, one son in U.S. Army; also one sister Mrs. Catherine Davey of Armow. She was predeceased by her husband Albert, two sisters and two brothers.

Funeral Services were held from Blessed Sacrament Church on Saturday, March 16. Interment in Heavenly Rest Cemetery, Windsor.

Scrp V3-14